

To: Trevor Baggiore[Baggiore.Trevor@azdeq.gov]
From: Montgomery, Michael
Sent: Tue 8/18/2015 12:43:05 AM
Subject: FW: Utah web site is a good source of info on San Juan River at Navajo

Hi Trevor –

We have been collecting plenty of data on the San Juan from Farmington to Lake Powell but have been slowed in our ability to get out analysis. Utah is a good place to look for the furthest most downstream data. They concluded today that there were no aquatic impacts in Utah.

Mike

From: Tenley, Clancy
Sent: Monday, August 17, 2015 8:11 AM
To: MacIntyre, Mark; Calanog, Steve; Hiatt, Gerald; Montgomery, Michael; Allen, HarryL; Manzanilla, Enrique
Subject: Utah web site is a good source of info on San Juan River at Navajo since it is the same river...

Utah able to get data and messages out pretty quick.

<http://www.deq.utah.gov/Topics/Water/goldkingmine/index.htm>

Utah DEQ: Gold King Mine Release

Utah DEQ: Gold King Mine Release

Read more...